MEDICAL ADVISORY BOARD FOR NORTH PART OF UTAH

The appointment of a medical advisory board to pass on special physical cases of registered and drafted men for the national army, for the newly created northern district of Utah, has been announced by Governor Bamberger. The board consists of four Ogdens doctors, one from Brigham and one from Logan. They are Drs. J. R. Morrell, chairman; E. H. Smith, secretary; A. A. Robinson, W. Q. Dalrymple, D. D., all of Ogdens; R. A. Pearce of Brigham, and E. P. Oldham of Logan. This board will be the final court on physical examinations and will exercise arbitrary power. The appointments were ratified by President Woodrow Wilson.

The board will make examinations of doubtful cases which have been submitted by the examining physicians of the local exemption boards or will pass on appeals based on physical condition. It acts similarly to the district exemption board but only handles the physical side of the question. The appointment of medical advisory boards, Dr. Morrell stated this morning, was deemed advisable by the government because many men had

95,000 AMERICAN ENGINEERS ARE CONSTRUCTING ROADS IN FRANCE

Since the little group of American engineers working on railroad construction near Gouzeaucourt unexpectedly found themselves fighting off Germans who had surprised them the government has given out the information that 95,000 engineers are at present serving in France and more are being recruited to be sent over immediately. Two of the prominent leaders of the American forces are Lt. Col. William B. Parsons and Brig. Gen. C. H. McKinstry. Samuel M. Felton, vice president of the Chicago Great Western railroad, is prominent in the work of recruiting engineers for road building.

The board of directors has recommended to the entire membership of that organization, which consists of the leading cleaning establishments throughout the United States and Canada, that all who can afford to do so, clean the garments for needy school children and also for the school children of all enlisted men, free of charge. School teachers and the heads of charitable organizations will be invited to furnish the names of needy children to the master cleaners of their community, in order that the work may cover the broadest possible field.

The week between Christmas and New Year has been selected for this work because all schools will be closed during that week, and for the further reason that it has been found that it is the quietest week in the cleaning industry, less work being in the plant at this time than at any other. It has also been suggested by the board that such work as the cleaners may charge for during the week, be done at actual cost as an added inducement for everyone in the community to co-operate in the movement.

PROFITS ON DRUGS TO BE LIMITED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Limitation of profits on drugs manufactured in this country on licenses to use German-owned patents, is being exercised by the federal trade commission to reduce the high prices which have prevailed since the war began. In announcing today that the Abbott laboratories of Chicago had been licensed to manufacture veronal, a hypnotic and nerve anesthetic, the commission said the drug would be produced for $2 a pound and sold at "15 per cent profit." The present price is $40 a pound.

The Rector Chemical company and the Farberwerk-Hoest company, both of New York, were licensed to manufacture "novocain," a local anesthetic. Recent sales have been made at a rate of $729 a pound, but the Rector company believes the drug can be made for $65 and agreed to sell at about $95 a pound. Right to fix price was reserved by the commission.

MORE HOGS SHIPPED FOR FARM PURPOSES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—There has been a large increase this fall in the number of hogs shipped to farms and ranches for breeding and feeding, instead of being sold for slaughter. This movement of "stockers and feeders" from the large markets of the country was four times as heavy during October this year as during the same month last year, and for September and October combined the movement was three times heavier this year than last. These hogs that have gone back to farms and ranches instead of being slaughtered will, of course, increase the pig crop next year. The movement is considered a definite indication of some of the results of the campaigns of the United States Department of Agriculture, State colleges, and other agencies, waged in all the leading hog-producing states with the object of rectifying indirectly effect the life of stock this winter.

Figures of the Bureau of Markets of the United States department of Agriculture show that from the large markets of the country (with the exception of Chicago and Omaha, from which figures are not now available) 65,210 stocker and feeder hogs were shipped during October this year, while only 14,246 moved from the same markets in October 1916. During September this year 23,457 stockers and feeders were shipped as compared with 12,879 during September 1917. This gives a total of $8,667 for September and October this year and 27,125 for the same period last year.

Theatres

AT THE ALHAMBRA.

A combination of good management and rare fortune has brought two of the premier moving picture releases of the season to the Alhambra theater this week. Line Cavalieri, beautiful beyond description, and Jack Pickford in the role of "Tom Sawyer," that immortal of the juvenile world, are the celebrities and the pictures built around the two are immense.

Line Cavalieri is playing at the Alhambra now in "The Eternal Temptress" and Jack Pickford will commence tomorrow in "Tom Sawyer." It really would be hard to combine a better week of entertainment than these two films and the comedies spiced in between.

First about Cavalieri. This is one of the first pictures the famous prima donna, known to many through her phonograph records, has appeared in and the moving picture world has acquired an actress of wonderful ability and charm. In "The Eternal Temptress" Cavalieri shows her world famed beauty to great advantage as the temptress and leaves the audience wondering whether she is a vampire or an angel through her first act of love and reminiscence. It vividly bears out the trite quotation "there is so much good in the worst of us, and so much bad in the best of us, that it doesn't behoove any of us to talk about the rest of us." The scene is laid in Rome and beautiful glimpses of this city are given.

Jack Pickford has been surrounded by a cast of admirable material for his portrayal of Tom Sawyer. Mark Twain's irrepressible boy, Sid and Mary and Aunt Polly and Becky Thatcher and the whole neighborhood gang are there and the film will bring vividly back to many old boys and girls in the audience their thrills and interest when they read the masterpiece of childhood many years ago.

It is a picture showing the brightest parts of the whole book "Tom Sawyer." The first episode depicts Tom's ingenious trick of gaining Sunday school honors by trading trinkets for tickets of good behavior in the Bible class. He is presented with the Bible in exchange for his tickets and the curtain is mercifully drawn when he includes David of Goliath with the prophets of old while giving an exhibition of his earning before the Sunday school.

Next the story weaves in the love affair with Becky Thatcher and Tom, Joe Harper and Huck Finn's escapade in and through the river when they decide to give up the prosaic life in the little town and become pirates.

LIEUT. E. E. PRATT WITH 63RD INFANTRY

Lieut. Eugene E. Pratt, son of Judge and Mrs. Arthur E. Pratt, and a former practicing attorney of Ogdens, has been commissioned as an officer of the Sixty-third infantry, according to word recently received by his parents. Lieutenant Pratt entered the first officers' training school and won a commission as second lieutenant, but has been waiting since that time to be assigned.

He is a graduate of the Ogdens High school and of Leland Stanford university and is a member of the University club of Ogdens.

SPANISH STEAMSHIP SUNK BY GERMANS

PARIS, Dec. 19.—The torpedoing by a submarine of the Spanish steamship Novembre, 3654 tons gross, is reported in a dispatch from Biarritz to the Excelsior quoting advices received there from Bilbao. Thirty of the crew have been landed. They say the ship was torpedoed without warning at night and that they were all thrown to the sea. After swimming about for an hour they were picked up by French patrol ships which put the submarine to flight.

"He has," replied the manager. "This is where he gets off."

BEATTY IS "REGULAR FELLOW" SAYS DAVE

These men look alike—and that's natural, as Admiral Sir David Beatty, hero of Jutland, and (below) Dave Pigott are first cousins.

Dave is Shaw taxi starter at Kansas City. He and the admiral grew up together in Ireland and Dave has many memories of the "big, handsome lad" who used to shout, "Top o' the mornin' Dave!" so heartily.

"He's just a regular fellow," says Dave.

Mrs. K.: There are a few general rules to clearing the table between courses if one wishes to have correct service. Do not remove the knives, forks and spoons from the dishes on which they lie before carrying them away; never set one dish upon another, but remove them separately; take the platter or principal dish from the table first, then the smaller serving dishes, and then the individual dishes. In removing the individual dishes, two of the larger ones can be carried at a time—one in each hand—and the smaller ones can be collected on a tray. Before the dessert is served everything that does not belong to it should be removed from the table, and the crumbs should be brushed off. A brush is never used for this purpose; but a folded napkin or a silver crumb knife may be used, and the crumbs are brushed into a plate or small tray. Ivy: Since your sister is married, you may leave the Christian name off your visiting cards if you choose, and call yourself "Miss Brown."
